Annibale Padovano

Italian Masters of the Renaissance
A workshop tutored by Philip Thorby for singers and instruments

Saturday 22nd October 2016, 10am to 5pm
David Turnbull Music School, Solihull School,
Warwick Road, Solihull, B91 3DJ

Philip would like to tutor us on some of the wonderful multi-part music created in the Italian Renaissance. The programme will include movements from the 24 part mass by Annibale Padovano (1527-1575). The rest of the programme will depend on the resources we have available – if there are sufficient we might just tackle Striggio in 40 parts. This repertoire was part of the 1568 royal wedding celebrations in Munich, when Orlando Lassus directed a colourful ensemble of voices and instruments.

We need lots of singers (all voices, but there are LOTS of tenor parts), and instruments including cornetti, sackbuts, curtals, viols, recorders (players should bring tenors downwards, as well as smaller sizes), lutes and organ. Lassus chose eight large recorders, eight sackbuts, eight viols and a lute in his performance of the Striggio, and even more varied instruments in other pieces.

Timetable :

10.00 Registration – hot drinks available
10.30 Morning Session
13.00 Lunch – bring sandwiches or use local eateries
14.00 Afternoon session
15.45 Tea
16.15 Final session
17.00 Finish

Directions to Solihull School :

By road: Leave M42 at Junction 5 onto the A41 and then take first left turn towards Solihull town centre. Turn right at the roundabout onto the Warwick Road (B 4025). The school entrance is on the right at the second set of traffic lights. There is plenty of parking in front of the chapel. The David Turnbull Music School is a short walk beyond the car park, keeping the chapel and playing field to your right. There is an alternative entrance with further parking, from School Lane.

Solihull railway station is approximately a 1 km walk through the town.
